

MARC AUDET

FOLK MUSIC SINGER/SONGWRITER

Active Performer – 450 shows since launch of folk music act in 2014.

Recording Artist - debut studio album released February 2019 (The River), live album released in 2022 (Forgotten Memories), studio EP released in December 2023 (Open Water) and studio album (Those Days) to be release in February 2024.

Songwriter - songs about life experiences and unique songs about Canadian history and heritage (historical songwriting).

Story Teller - developer of unique folklore folk show (story and song) about the history and heritage of the Ottawa Valley.

Website – www.marcaudetmusic.com

Streaming – Bandcamp, Spotify, iTunes, Apple Music, YouTube, Facebook, Soundcloud

Sample Track (from Bandcamp)

<https://marcaudetmusic.bandcamp.com/track/la-riviere-3>

Sample Video (from YouTube), duo

<https://youtu.be/ZYkMuFIDGqY>

Sample Review (from website www.marcaudetmusic.com)

“Marc plays music which calls back to the bygone history of Eastern Ontario with tales of the Voyageurs and Coureur De Bois of the Ottawa Valley. His music is as calming as the flowing Ottawa River. His presence is serene and introspective, much like the territory he sings about. While listening to him, you may find yourself in a different place and time. Join him for an evening of history, folk legends, and authentic entertainments.” [Nigel E.]

“Saw Marc for the first time Wow...so impressed! The show was so captivating, blending great songwriting, storytelling, history as well as little known mysteries, especially of the Ottawa Valley. We found ourselves riveted and totally immersed in Marc’s performance. A TOTALLY enjoyable evening of great musicianship. Thanks Marc!” – [Mark K.]